ACPM Dental College and Hospital, Dhule and Anil Neerukonda Institute of Dental Sciences and Hospital, Visakhapatnam, agree that student exchange will be guided by principles listed below.

A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full-time student, and from where he/she is expected to graduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period of time to undertake a pre-determined programme of study/observership/ training or research.

- a) Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.
- b) An exchange student will continue to be treated as full-time student at his/her home institution.
- c) His/her programme of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim" academic advisor identified by the host institution.

- d) The host institution will evaluate an exchange student's performance in each course or module, award a letter to that effect.
- e) The home institution may award to the exchange student credits earned at a host institution, but only after the home institution has established correspondence between courses taken at the host institution vis-a-vis those offered at the home institution.
- f) If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the host institution will evaluate the exchange student's performance in the research, and issue a letter to that effect, together with a technical "report" of the research carried out.
- g) If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the home institution will take note of the performance evaluation and the technical report, and take steps in accordance with its own procedures.
- h) ACPM Dental College and Hospital, Dhule and Anil Neerukonda Institute of Dental Sciences and Hospital, Visakhapatnam agree to provide suitable accommodation only for student exchange.
